LETTER FROM FRANKFORT. Room No. 40, Capital Hatel

The Commonwealth refers to my expression of orinion that Louisville loss not care one stray about having the seat of government, might be benefited, not by the patronage of gress of gamblers who would congregate in the larger city, but are afraid to come here "where their iniquities would be arre to find them cut." Does the senior like so of the Commonwealth as the senior less so of the Capital Hotel feel a conscious assurance that such "public convenience" does not exist in this highly intellectual and unanimously moral little city? What I meant to say as regards the removal of the eapital is that Louisville cares nothing for the character of the advance of the contemplation of the rebelled-trailed for the child of the rebelled-trailed for the fatt of the rest that test and car will have confertable bead quarters in llumitariled. I trust that rest and car will have the first that rest and car will have confertable bead quarters in llumitariled confertable bead quarters and car will have confertable bead quarters in llumitariled confertable bead quarters in llumitariled to the restriction is sealed.

The trion is the c that Louisville cares nothing for the change unless the Legislature, consulting public convenience, should determine to make it. I would not recommend, nor do I believe the coming summer subsist the Southern people and their armies another winter. (I obthing is a need so pressing that without the intervention of a newer composent to remove one cent to seenre the privilege of the change, anless some of the elever men and lovely women resident here could be transferred with the capitol and other public buildings. If pla of Frankfort think that Louisville creised on this question they are greatly staken. Some few may have interested motives for the change, but very few.

THE WHITERY ORDER,-The complaints of our farmers and distillers against the order probibiting all distilling of grain in Kentrocky, we believe, are just and well founded. std that story has been too often adopted and shown false by patent facts, not to justify susistillers directly interested have represented e matter to Governor Bramlette, and we are gratified to learn the Governor has appealed to Maj. Gen. Schofield to rescind the order. We trust that Gen. Schofield will revoke the order, and give our people a free trade and free use of their grain.

The induction arms against us are absent from Lomes within our lines. Years of fatiguing service and thrible privations, not more expressive than the anxieties and cares of which the man of family cannot divest his mind, has determined handed, to revisit at the order, that distilling gives a fictitious value and solicitude. to grain, is not correct. Nearly all of our distillers are farmers and have a large amount of stock to subsist and fatten on the swill or slop, and the distillers who are not farmers feed and fatten a large amount of stock pursuity of the free that is to leave the rebel lines, deliver themselves to us, received and fatten a large amount of stock pursuity of the free that is to leave the rebel lines, deliver themselves to us, received and stock pursuity of the free that is to leave the rebel lines, deliver themselves to us. The first term their officers could not be secured, and, if they could, they would not be respected by the Federal authorities. To accomplish the object of their desires, there is but one course to pursue, and that is to leave the rebel lines, deliver themselves to us. feed and fatten a large amount of stock pur- selves to us, renembre allegiance to the Co chased for the purpose. This stock must be federacy, embrace the tendered amnesty by fed, unless it is the purposa to allow it to taking the oath prescribed, visit their homes, perish and withhold from our peopla their means of subsistence. The stock fed and fattened by the swill after the spirit is extracted actually feeds and fatteus more stock than the grain in its natural state.

The stock fed and Many admit that their officers, while denouncing desertion to the troops, connive at standard state. The grain is absolutely necessary to subsist | secret service. tha stock on hand, and prohibiting distilling does not increase the surplus to be spared for use of the army. The question is mercly as to the mode of feeding the grain, and, we ara persuaded, our farmers know the best mode of feeding. It is not a conjecture, or opinion, but an established fact, that the swill, or slop, after the spirit is extracted, fed warm, will stain and fatten more stock than the grain The Government actually gains nothbe order, nnless the stock of the Stato to supply our people and the army are to be

Beside, in another view of the subject, it appears to as that the government is not a gainer by it. Each hushel of corn will distil om three to three and a half gallons of lakey. On each gallon there is now a tax of twenty cents, making each bushel of corn yield in reveune to the government from 69 to 70 cents. If the tax bill which has just passed tha United States Senate cuffreing a further tax of 40 cents per gallon, making 60 cents, becomes a law, each husbel will yield from $1 80 to $2 10 per bushel. The price paid for corn in the interior of Kentneky is about 70 cents per hashal, and this, added to the present sum that each bushel is taxed in the form of spirits costs the government $1 40 per bushel. Estimating the additional tax of 40 cents, making the whole tax 60 cents per gailon, and each husbel, considering the loss in revenue that the spirit takes from each bushel pays in tax, each hashel ef corn will cost the government from $2 50 to $2 80 per bushel.

There cannot be a doubt that the Under does not increase the surplus grain to be spared to the army. It is quite certain, too, that along the Kentucky Central Railroad, the Louisville and Lexington Railroad, and in the interior counties, there is ample grain at fair prices for Government use. If the same price was paid in the interior that is paid at Cincinnati the corn could readily be purchased. If the Quarmasters and their agents would honestly to the corn and pay for it there would no trouble in procuring a supply.

We do not comprehend the justice of the discrimination against Kontucky, when Ohio, diana, and filinols are not only allowed to til without restriction, but are permitted even to purchasa and ship large quantities of grain from the valley of the Ohio for the parpese of distilling. Wa sincerely trust that Gen. Schofi ld will reseind the order and give us a free market, and allow our farmers to feed the grain necessary for their stock in the mode which will be most profitable to them

ers. It seems that there is a regularly organized band of guerillas roaming about through Grant and Owen counties, shooting every man who hat in any way distinguished himself as a firm adherent to the Union canse. On Saturday tast, the body of a well-known citizen of Grant county, named Simeon Jones, was found in the woods a few miles from Williamstown, pierced with twelve or fifteen balls. He was no doubt bushwhackel. A complete reign of terror exists in the county, and hundreds of loyal citizens, fearing that their lives will be taken, are flscing from their homes to places of safety. Several of the refugees have gone to Covington. It is ertainly high time that the military authorities were taking some steps to exterminato the rebel bushwhackers in Grant and Owen

Henrylle, Ala, Feb. 6, 196t.

The unexpected activity of the enemy on our frent, evidenced in the contraction of his lines and the departure of troops from Dilton, has somewhat puzzled and confounded our vigiliant leaders. It movements and expeditions against the enemy have been contemplated and planned, all preparations and dispositions for the present will he discontinued. Has the enemy, proverbidly lazy and unenterprising, tunnent heletofore to intranch in hely and it will signify and to drowse until attacked, at last sprang like a wounded stag to a last desperate effort to crush the foe? Or o a last desperate effort to crush the foe? to a list desperate effect to crush the foe? Or his pressing formen from sucther quarter endancered the sety of a vit I point in the Confederacy? The deficiencies of the enemy in transportation and horses for his artill rylander it too unlikely to jointly helief that he had direct to take the initiative in a new cambridge.

As pictured by the darter who have a within our lines in the parter of the days, is coras it charges that I meant, not the convenience generally of the people of the State, but the hope and inclining their flow sand soldiers with fresh courage, all the latinidation that profit of certain classes of the city, each as botel keepers, salour keepers, hack drivers, the Commonwealth says. might be benefited, not by the patronage of ning the Confebracy. If these absolution the members of the Legislature, but by their centers are calcid and sincere, their salt ments following picture a most disheurtening

I lothing is a need so pressing that without the intervention of a power compotent to remove the blockade and farnish supplies, the severities of another winter will, without a blow by the Federal stries, dissolve the enemy's forces as surely and effectually as the saalmans chasa away a fig. These are the tales they fell us, and to hear them at the contensional, one could not, from the apparent earningtness and candor that characterizes their estaces and candor that characterizes their statements, scaledly harbor a fear that all these stories that accord and harmonizo so well are but the results of crafty collasion on the part of those who would thus gain confi-dence by swearing faith, acquiring informa-tion, and abusing trust, betray us by rejoining

THE COTTON PROMISITION. The object of Gev. Logan's order prohibiting the purchase of cotton within, or the shipment of that article from, the precincts of the 15th army corps, I was mable after considerable inquiry and cogitation to understand. The practical good senso and irreproachable integrity of the General left me new contracts. ategrity of the General left me no grounds to suspect the parity of intention on his part. Whether the conflict in judgment and jurisdiction reflects ansavorably on him or on the Treasury Department, I shall not presume to decide.

lt tha latter party in issuing permits to traffie in cotton was guilty of Indiscretion, I can see no good reason why the error should have been corrected by the application of a remedy so severe. We have all heard the remedy so severe. We have all heard the argaments pro sud con on the subject of cottou trading. No question has eulisted in its discussion profounder students of political teconomy, more astate experimenters in the matter of finance. The intellect that has been built, as we love to boast, on a basis competent to upheld the gigantic superstructure of our national finances has determined that it is expedient to give reins to trade as our armies advance, that cotton, the enemy's woulth, our own ally, and the world's necessity, may find a market.

Not to amplify in discussion, every bule of

Not to amplify in discussion, every bile of cetton purchased South under existing fegulations puls in circulation and relieves our inflated currency. Make the representative of wealth of a citizen the national currency instead of cotton, to that extent the Government claims has sympathy and allegiages. The claims his sympathy and allegiance. The more deliars in that currency that are distributed in the chemy's country the weaker econ es confidence in the currency issued by Cotton demands specie, and the in erects of the country loadly call for specio. Is it good policy, then, to lay this prohibition, this embargo, on the cotton trade?

ABUSE OF PRIVILEGES. It is said by some that a large amount of reeds purchased from a trade store permitted by Gun. Logar, at Huntsville, found its way across the Tennesseo river a few days aince, and that from this originated the obnoxious prohibition on the trade in cotton.

This may be an excellent objection against the retablishing of trade stores in Northern Alabama until the advancement of our lines to the other side of the Tennessee; but that it is titles the austerity that is practised tojustifies the ansierity that is practised to-raid legitir ate traders, acting under permits com the Treasury Department, I am unable

During the occupation of Northern Alahama by our forces under Gen. Buell, tradits were primitted to purchase sud ship cotton. The same yolicy was incugurated then that the authorities seek now to introduce. Trade, our han that lays the golden egg, was to follow the

The same pretended Union citizens who had satisfied in gathering in this cotton remained at Huntsville when our troops evacuated, and cisined the cotton as their property. If the cotton had been known by the enemy to belong to traders it would most likely have been confiscated or burnt. It was disposed of to the Southern dealers, it is understood, and was non the cotton-fealer. That which was not so disposed of was rebald, and now ten intimated by the partisans of Mr. Lincoln's revolutionary scheme of reconstruction, that, while the conservatives of the country reject this scheme, they do not suggest a plan of their own. The intimation is coaspicuously untrue.

The conservatives of the country at the outset declared their plan of re-establishing the government, solemnly pledging them-selves to ahide by the plan in all its parts. And they have thus far kept their mith. Their plan is the simple plan of the constitution. It has been defined repeatedly, but nev-Governor Bramlette in his inaugural address. Said Governor Pramlet'e in that statesmanlike and masterly paper—and we quots the passage exactly as it came from his hands: How shall the Constitution-abiding, Union-loving, conservative men, North and South, meet the issue presented by those who, on the one hand, seek, by usurpation, to pervert the constitution, to invade its sanctuaries, and

We must meet them in the modes sanctioned its, and by the judiciary protect against the infliction of acts violativo of the constitution; and with the whols resources and militar power of our government we must crush the rebellion and restore the national authority

Fears are expressed, and doubtless many are sincere in their apprehensions, that crushing the rebellion will but open up the way to the destruction of that political equality of the States which has builded us up into a great nationality, and given prosperity and happiness to a mighty and free people. It is feared that mad men will seek to force terms of such mission upon the acceptance of the rebellions States destructive of their State rights and of their political equality. That there are men wicked enough to do so, there is as little room seeking to destroy the government by force. But the conservative men of the whole country have the strength and power, by naity of action, to crush the one and defeat the evil

To better assure the friends of constitutional nent of our security against such danger, a few suggestive thoughts, by way of strengthening their confidence and assuring cal constitution which the extremists seek to Rebellion has not alreved, or change silutions. Nor has the rebellion destrothe existence of the States as States of the Union. Their revolt only surpends the action of the civil authority of the Federal Government within the revolted districts, pending the revolt, and substitutes the military authority until their rebellion ceases, and they ccasent to accept the civil instead of the mil-

The States, by rebellion, did not lose their status as States in the l'nion. Their harmonious and peacetul relations only were disturbed. By rebellion they invoked the military to supersede the civil rule during the time of rebellion. Revolt did not disorganize and remit them to a territorial status, for revolution attempted but failing in respectively. It is revolting to common sense.

Are these men really sincere? We are atraid not. There is, as we fear, too much time of rebellion. Revolt did not disorganize and remit them to a territorial status, for revolution attempted but failing in respectively.

It is the duty of cur government, when the armed r. bels are driven from or subdued in a revolted State, to protect and encourage the loyally-disposed citizons remaining, in at once organizing their State, and by the election of all its officers—State and Federal—as provided for in their constitution and laws, place the State in organized harmony with the government. Humanity and the cause of constitu-tional liberty demands this course. Who shall be punished, will be the question for the civil tribunals to determine. There are between forty and fifty prisoners confined in the city jail at this time. The improvements being made at the Mill-tary Prison are progressing rapidly. A large number of rebel prisoners were sent to Rock Island and Camp Chase yesterday. The Confederate officers whose names were published yesterdsy, will be sent to Camp just received at SUES, No. 220 Fourth st. Chase this morning.

Fifty deserters will be taken to Camp Nelson this morning.

The 29th Uhio left for home last evening. Five hundred and thirty-five soldiers were sent to their regiments from this point yesterday. The furloughed soldiers and convalescents are passing through daily in large numbers.

The travel through our city at the present time is immense; the trains on the different railroads arrive and depart crowded every day, and passengers on the Nashville road are frequently detained one day in consequence er difficult to obtain lodging.

We learn that the 23d Kentucky, which has re-enlisted, left Chattanooga on Monday lastand will arrive at Covington to-morrow. We are informed that the recruiting officers in this city are meeting with success. Young men are enlisting daily, induced by patriotism and the unprecedented bounties offered. We learn that the railroad toward Kncxville from Chattanooga has been finished to Cleveland, Tennessee, and it was expected to be completed to Knoxville by the 12th or 13th. The rallroad depot, at Chattanooga has been destroyed by fire, with $100,000 worth of uartermaster s stores.

Twelve deserters were brought to this place from Cincinnati, yesterday, in irons. They will be sent to their regiments to answer the charges against them.

Jos. Jenkins, of the 10th Kentucky, was arrested in the city yesterdny as a deserter, and Stephen Donnecker, of the 431 Indiana, was arrested in Jeffersonville on the same charge, and brought to this city. The barracks guard-house is constantly filled with drunken and disorderly soldiers. The military authorities are very promot in arresting these recreants.

The Sandasky Register states that some periment calculated to taunt with disappointment after a few months' trial, but a magnifiover from Johnson's Island on the 9th, pre-liminary to a start for Ben. Butler's department. Among them were the notorious makes the celchated "Leck," the only stitch that has ever been found to give satisfaction eff. Thompson and Lieutenant Breckinridge, son of the rebel General J. C. Breckinridge. The priseners appeared in fair physical condition, and were well provided with blankets, etc. They took the Mansfield and Pennsylvnnia route. The 15th Missouri arrived from the front vesterday, en ronte home. We are informed at they will be paid off here before leaving. Septains Parker and Shultz, and General Crittenden's Adjutant-General, testified before the court of inquiry yesterday. Tho court is msking rapid progress, and will complete its work in a short time.

Tuere is nothing of importance transpiring in either military or police circles. The city ppears lively, and business is evidently im-

Nothing could show more clearly the gencral soundness of the people than the desperate effort which has been made to get up a renegades, and the total and even ludicrous failure of the effort. When we consider how casy it is in every community to get a number'of persons to endorse almost anything, we confess the result is is a little surprising as weil as exectingly gratifying. The people are sound. Let their representatives he admonished by the fact.

THE CUBRILLAS UNDER HAMILTON AND HUGHES WBIPPEN.-The Frankfort Commonealth learns that Major Johnson, of the 52d generat Kentucky volunteers, with a hattylion of his men, started in pursuit of the guerillas under Hamilton, Hughes and Dori y, as soon as he learned of their nefarious doings at Sectisville, on the 27th ult. He followed them into Tennessee, overtook and gave them battle, killed forty, took twenty prisonera, one hundred horses, and re-captured a great quantity of "e goods stolen by them from the itizens of Scottsville.

Wood's THEATRE.—The celebrated drama of the Hidden Hand will be produced to-night, in which Miss Mary Mitchell takes the charactor of Capitola. This is one of the most popular playe of the age, and invariably attracts a large audience. The Rough Diamond concludes the performance. Miss Mitchell is rspidly paving her way to fame and fortune, and we are gratified to know that she has met with the encouragement in our city due to her LOUISVILLE THEATRE. -The grent play of Mazeppa will be presented to-night for the last time. Miss Addic Anderson and Mr. Miles will both appear in this popular piece, and all who have not witnessed these celebrities in the character of Mazeppa should attend. The performance concludes with The Outlaw Steed, or Mary's Rsscue. The two educated horses, Hiawatha and Watawah, will appear to-night.

Nute Williams, one of John Morgan's men, and enpposed to be implicated in the Carrollton (Ky.) bank robbery, was arrested at St. Lot's and brought to this city on Wednesday for trial. He has been going under the assumed name of Wm. Masterson.

DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKET. OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL, ? FRIDAY, Fab. 12.

New Your, Feb. 17.

The Post says: The money market is looking more easy. The amount of eapital to be borrowed at 6 per cent is daily increasing. Mercantile papers pass at 68. Stock market active, and numbers of new huyers are daily crowding the precincts of the Stock Exchange. Should the present ease in money continue, there is little doubt that a speculative rise in prices will be inertable. Government stocks have advanced considerably this morning, on account of the news that Money market lower. Money we quots at 669 cent. Exchange lolerably active at the rame rates, buying at 260 discount and selling at par. Transactions in city and country vouchers very light, the former buying at 3 and the latter at 10 B cent off.
